

Love helps bravery grow.

A PICTURE BOOK THAT REMINDS CHILDREN THEY DON'T HAVE TO BE FEARLESS TO BE BRAVE.

THE STORY

Hank is a lovable boxer with one tiny problem—he's terrified of flies.

With the steady love of his two moms and his faithful lobster toy, Clawd, Hank discovers that bravery doesn't begin when fear disappears.

It grows when children feel loved enough to try.

Perfect for

- Classrooms
- Libraries
- Storytime
- Gift Giving

Ages: 4–7

Format: Hardcover

Length: 32 pages

ISBN: 979-8-9946068-2-7

Retail Price: $24.99

Themes

- Courage
- Confidence
- Love & Belonging
- Emotional Growth

MEET THE AUTHOR

Dana Eikenberg is a former athlete, coach, and children's author. Inspired by her beloved boxer Hank, she writes stories that help children discover bravery isn't about being fearless—it's about feeling loved enough to try.

Why Readers, Educators, & Booksellers Love Hank the Brave

- ✓ Beautifully illustrated hardcover
- ✓ Ideal for SEL, read-alouds, classroom discussions, storytime, and author visits
- ✓ Encourages courage, confidence, and empathy
- ✓ Already being shared by families, educators, librarians, counselors, children's hospitals, and community storytimes.

dana@hankthebrave.com

401.480.5775 | HanktheBrave.com

Available through Ingram for wholesale ordering.
Also available at HankTheBrave.com and Amazon.